

Art Facilitators Needed

The Alzheimer's Association Memories in the Making® art program is in need of volunteers to facilitate small art groups consisting of individuals with Alzheimer's disease or related dementias.

Dandy Snowman
by Doris Chavez

Anybody and Nobody
by Isabelle Luedecke

Desired skills:

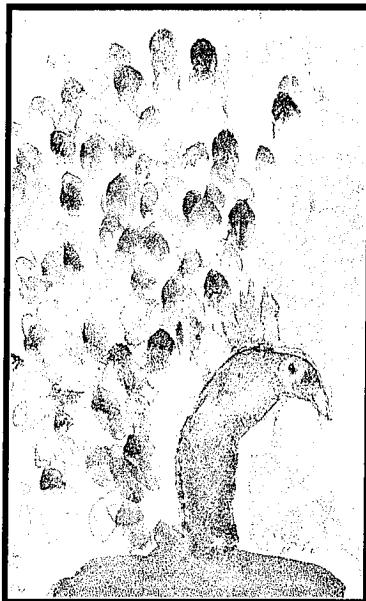

- Art background or interest
- Compassion for the elderly
- Ability to build trusting relationships

Your commitment:

- Two hours per week at a care community
- Preferably a six-month commitment

The Alzheimer's Association provides:

- Memories in the Making art program training
- Art materials
- Support from an area art consultant and Association staff

Sometimes I'm a Peacock
by Glatha Meek

Use your creative talents and facilitation skills to help people with Alzheimer's disease communicate their thoughts and feelings through art.

NEXT TRAINING DATE: February 16, 2012

Please call Gwen Ippen (303) 813-1669 x 241 or email: gwen.ippen@alz.org