Culture Change
Leadership Summit

Tuesday,
October 5, 2010

Denver, Colorado

Location:

Denver Marriott City Center
Denver, Colorado

(A block of sleeping rooms has been reserved for meeting participants.)

To Register:

On-line registration is available at www.planetree.org. Participation is limited, so early registration is encouraged.

Cost:

This program is generously funded by the Picker Institute, an international non-profit organization that supports research in the field of patient-centered care. This funding allows us to waive registration fees, but participants will be responsible for their own travel expenses.

ABOUT THE CULTURE CHANGE LEADERSHIP SUMMIT:

Dedicated to leaders on the front lines of the culture change movement, this day-long summit is a forum for peer-to-peer sharing about implementation efforts, outcomes and future opportunities for advancing patient-/resident-centered care. We will also highlight the innovations that are emerging to transform the transitions of care.

RELEASE OF THE LONG-TERM CARE IMPROVEMENT GUIDE

At the meeting, Planetree and the Picker Institute will release a new Long-Term Care Improvement Guide which will present best practices for continuing care organizations on a journey of transformational change.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE DAY WILL INCLUDE:

- Leaders from sites across the continuing care continuum will impart their first-hand experiences with culture change
- Leaders representing hospitals and continuing care organizations will review innovations and opportunities for transforming transitions of care
- Industry thought leaders will share their insights on both the immediate and long-term future of the culture change movement
